

The logo features the word "think" in a lowercase, sans-serif font inside a yellow speech bubble. Below it, the word "GREENSBURG" is written in all caps, also in a sans-serif font, inside a white speech bubble with a dotted border. The entire logo is set against a teal background with a white dotted pattern at the bottom.

GREENSBURG

GCDC GREENSBURG COMMUNITY
DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

41 W. OTTERMAN STREET, STE. 520
GREENSBURG, PA 15601

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 14, 2011

CONTACT:
Steve Gifford, Executive Director
724-689-0040
sgifford@thinkgreensburg.com

Simon Stuchlik, Intern
intern@thinkgreensburg.com

Merchants to Celebrate 'Summer in the City' in Downtown Greensburg

Greensburg, Pa – Downtown Greensburg will come alive with shopping opportunities, kid's events, and live music when merchants and restaurants celebrate the annual 'Summer in the City' weekend from July 21st to July 23rd. The entire family will be entertained by stores offering special discounts on regular merchandize, along with a diverse schedule of kid's activities as well as sidewalk food vendors and sales. Parking is free at both surface and street metered locations on Saturdays and Sundays.

Golf For Her and Lapels; A Fine Men's Clothier kick-off the weekend with a downtown business owner happy hour on Thursday, July 21st from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. Stop by for refreshments, snacks, and summer discounts. Afterwards, T.G.I.S. at the Palace Theater will feature Bad Boy Blues Band on Thursday at 6:00 p.m. And on Friday evening, power pop band Brena will fill the Robertshaw Amphitheatre Friday evening as the weekly SummerSounds concert.

Saturday marks the highlight of the weekend, when stores open at 10:00 a.m. for special sales and activities such as a Sidewalk Chalk Drawing Contest at Art Tech Supplies, a Putting Contest at Golf For Her, and a children's Duck Pond at Descendants. The weekend concludes with more live music at both The Supper Club and Oliver's Pourhouse on Saturday. Oliver's has scheduled Skero & Jingles, playing the hits everyone will remember, from 9:00 p.m. to midnight.

From shopping to live music, 'Summer in the City' is bound to be a memorable festival for everyone attending. For a list and location of merchants and restaurants in downtown Greensburg, visit our blog at www.thinkgreensburg.blogspot.com. Mark the date in your calendar, and come downtown to celebrate the experiences of downtown Greensburg!

-more-

'Summer in the City' Schedule of Events

10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Sidewalk Chalk Drawing Contest	Art Tech Supplies
Children's Games & Duck Pond, 11AM - 4 PM	Descendants
Famous Italian Roast Beef Sandwiches	Cook's Market
Putting Contest	Golf For Her
Art Sale	Penelope's
Summer One Day Sale	Lapels, A Fine Men's Clothier

And Much, Much More!

The Greensburg Community Development Corporation (GCDC), a private non-profit organization established in 1975 to assist with the development of downtown Greensburg. The GCDC works to create a seamless, thriving community. Our community is a unique place where people enjoy living, working, and playing. Businesses and shops are concentrated in and around the revitalized downtown and compliment the businesses located along major transportation corridors. Our community contains unique historic places, locally owned businesses, and cultural events that are cherished by residents. People come to the City of Greensburg to hear musical performances, enjoy drink and food with friends and family, shop for unique products and services, and visit the cultural centers. This is our vision for the City of Greensburg.

Produced by:

GCDC

GREENSBURG COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

4 | West Otterman Street

Greensburg, PA 15601

Ph: 724-689-0040